

Daily Democrat.

PRINTED AND PUBLISHED BY

HARNEY, HUGHES & CO.

OFFICE—

South Side Green Street, two doors below the Custom House.

SATURDAY, MARCH 25, 1865.

NOTICE TO CITY SUBSCRIBERS.
The Daily Democrat, delivered by carriers throughout the city, is at the rate of twenty-five cents per week, including the Sunday paper.

$300 BOUNTY

Offered by the City of Louisville in addition to the United States Bounty.

The city of Louisville will pay a bounty of $300 to each volunteer, who may hereafter be enlisted in the United States military service, when the certificate is presented showing that a credit has been given to the city of Louisville for the person enlisted or mustered in as above.

WM. KATE, Mayor.

$300 BOUNTY

Is paid at Jeffersonville, Ind., in addition to the United States Bounty.

BENEFIT OF MISS ALICE HOWES.—We very respectfully direct the attention of our readers to the grand matinee at the Louisville Theater, this evening, when Miss Alice Howes, the daughter of Mr. Allen Howes, for whom we have had a bright and successful future. For the announcement of her numerous friends this afternoon Miss Alice presents the beautiful play "Paint Heart Never Won Fair Lady" and the "Brigand's Son." Between the pieces Miss Kitte Sirius and Miss E. E. will appear as two of their favorite dances. Remember little Alice this afternoon and give her a flattering reception.

THE ABOVE BOUNTY OF $300 CASH IS PAID UPON THE PRESENTATION OF CERTIFICATE OF JEFFERSONVILLE TOWNSHIP.

CONTRIBUTORS.—J. H. Dafford, L. Starks, Johnson, R. C. McRae, W. H. McRae, G. P. McRae and Colonial James Kelvin.

W. H. McRae.

CITY NEWS.

The Daily to the Country.

Under our new system of mailing, patrons receive their papers with more promptness and certainty, and each paper contains, with the direction, a statement of the time to which the subscription is paid. This constant notification will enable all to keep posted as to the condition of their accounts, and they can, by remitting a little in advance, keep their paper going, without missing a single issue.

Thus far the system works admirably—papers go with perfect regularity and patrons being constantly notified remit promptly. It is the true system—better for patron and publisher—and we think they will all be glad we have adopted it.

NOTICE OF THE CHARLE MILLER OF THE CUMBERLAND—TWO LIVES LOST.—A special dispatch to Captain Park Verble, yesterday, states that the Charlie Miller, while bound down the Cumberland river from Nashville, Tuesday morning, by the severe storm which has prevailed along that stream. Although there were a number of persons aboard at the time of the accident, all escaped, except two, who were drowned. Those who were drowned were Mr. S. Van Winkle, the steward of the boat, and the cabin boy, Oscar Lewis, both of whom resided at this place. The Charlie Miller was built at Pittsburgh, and was in her fourth season. She was owned by Captain Park Verble and his brother, W. Verble, of this city, and was valued at $25,000. She was insured in Tyler's agency in this city for $6,000.

POLO PROCEEDINGS.—Friday, March 24.—Peter French, drunk and destroying the property of Jenny Mack; continued until Tuesday and bail in $100 to appear.

James Scott, drunk and abusing his family. This man is before the police court every little while on this same charge; bail in $200 for two months.

John McLain was presented on a peace warrant out by Kate McLain; bail in $100 for three months.

John Barr, stealing $50 from Mr. Fawell; continued small to-morrow morning.

Charles Bias, stabbing Geo. Hybrick with intent to kill; discharged.

There is a call for a meeting of the personal friends of John M. Dibb, at the Court-house, to-night, to talk over the Majority. Some other place would do just as well. It seems to be a select party—a sort of mutual admiring society.

The call is not for a convention—not for a meeting of the citizens of Louisville, but for the friends of John M. Dibb, to "take such steps as may promote the further interest and welfare of the city government at the Mayor's election."

If the call had been for a general convention, other candidates might seek some interest in the call. As it is, they have no cards or tickets to go among the select.

We take pleasure in announcing that Major Henry Pleasner has entirely recovered from his late severe sickness and has resumed business again as Provost Marshal of our city. The community may well be proud of such an officer in their midst, as he is a lover of justice and truth, brave and humane in his actions, and one who is and has been most energetically working for the interest and welfare of our citizens. May he remain with us a long time and always enjoy the blessings of health and happiness.

The following rebel deserters reported themselves and registered their names yesterday at the Provost Marshal's office, S. P. Compton, Paddington county, Ga.; J. K. Johnson, Monroe county, Ark.; Capt. Paul M. Vicker, of this city; Sam. T. Harrison, Jefferson county, Ky., and James N. Clay, Cobb county, Ga.

Sam. Hobbs, of Jessie's command, has come to the city, taken the oath, and been released upon condition that he may answer any charges that may be preferred against him hereafter. He is, it is said, has been engaged in guerrilla warfare; but the truth of this matter may come to light hereafter.

FAST WORK.—The Main-street and Portland Railroad Company are progressing finely with the laying down of the track. Day before yesterday 80 men laid 1,900 feet of the track down on the avenue. We hope soon to have the pleasure of "ridin' in a railroad car" to Portland.

BARRACKS NO. 1—Business at the barracks was lively yesterday. Eighty convalescents arrived from various points, three hundred and ninety men were forwarded to Nashville, Tenn., eight to Eminence, Ky., six to Lebanon and four to Russellville, Ky.

Dr. Ben Wathen and Oscar Beard, both of Breckinridge county, Ky., who were arrested last week by the Federal authorities, are detained here for trial. They are charged, we understand, with giving aid and comfort to guerrillas generally.

RELEASED.—George Dixon, of Henderson, Ky., was released yesterday from imprisonment in the barracks, upon taking the oath of allegiance and giving bond in the sum of $3,000 for observance of the oath.

RELEASED.—Officer Gilchrist, who was arrested by the military authorities, day before yesterday, was released yesterday by Major-General Palmer.

RECRUITS.—One hundred, and forty-seven new recruits arrived here, yesterday, from Madison, Wisconsin, and forty-seven from Philadelphia, Pa.

Mr. Louis Dennis, in stepping from the cars of the Portland cars on Thursday, had his foot caught under the wheel, seriously fracturing the bone.

PROCEDED.—The matines at Wood's Theater on Wednesday afternoon realized the sum of $30.53. There were $55 tickets sold.

FASHION.—Mrs. Mayers will open her new spring stock of bonnets, hats, &c., on next Thursday. See her card in to-day's paper.

Amusements.—
"Voices" was again filled to overflowing with a sensible and highly appreciative audience to witness Mr. Drew in his great renditions of the "Colombian," the "boulevard" of "Mazeppa," and the "Irish Dragoon." As a comedian Mr. Frank Drew has very few, if any, superiors on the American stage, and it is with pleasure that we chronicle the fact of his great success in our city. This evening he will repeat his success in "The Skin of the Thrilling Drama of Jack Sheppard," and as Mignon in his great original burlesque of the same. This afternoon a grand matinee for the benefit of women and children, when a bill of unusual attraction will be presented.

LOUISVILLE THEATER.—The celebrated tragedian, Mr. Fairleigh, was greeted with a highly intelligent audience, last night, but the attendance was not so large as would have been desired, considering that it was his first benefit in our city. His representation of the sublime part of Hamlet was a masterpiece of acting, and fully sustains his reputation as one of the greatest actors of the American stage. The Ophelia of Miss Ada Gray was excellent. To-night Mr. Fairleigh appears as Richard III., in Shakespeare's great tragedy of that name.

S. B. HOWES' GREAT CIRCUS.—As A. Ward won't have the circus "arrive" and will give the opening performance to-night, at the corner of Second and Main streets, the grand parade will transpose on Monday morning, at 11 o'clock, when the Car of Eulon, with Crockett and his pet lion, and various other animals, will take the lead, followed by the company of horses, which the minstrel chariot draws by. Shetland ponies, and the other varied and curious features of this great show, which can be seen as the procession winds its way along our principal streets. Those expecting to get seats to-night had better go early, or they may find them filled. There is little doubt that this, the first visit of this company to our city, will be a great success.

BENEFIT OF MISS ALICE HOWES.—We very respectfully direct the attention of our readers to the grand matinee at the Louisville Theater, this evening, when Miss Alice Howes, the daughter of Mr. Allen Howes, for whom we have had a bright and successful future.

THE above BENEFIT OF $300 CASH IS PAID UPON THE PRESENTATION OF CERTIFICATE OF JEFFERSONVILLE TOWNSHIP.

CONTRIBUTORS.—J. H. Dafford, L. Starks, Johnson, R. C. McRae, W. H. McRae, G. P. McRae and Colonial James Kelvin.

W. H. McRae.

THE above BENEFIT OF $300 CASH IS PAID UPON THE PRESENTATION OF CERTIFICATE OF JEFFERSONVILLE TOWNSHIP.

CONTRIBUTORS.—J. H. Dafford, L. Starks, Johnson, R. C. McRae, W. H. McRae, G. P. McRae and Colonial James Kelvin.

W. H. McRae.

CITY NEWS.

The Daily to the Country.

Under our new system of mailing, patrons receive their papers with more promptness and certainty, and each paper contains, with the direction, a statement of the time to which the subscription is paid. This constant notification will enable all to keep posted as to the condition of their accounts, and they can, by remitting a little in advance, keep their paper going, without missing a single issue.

Thus far the system works admirably—papers go with perfect regularity and patrons being constantly notified remit promptly. It is the true system—better for patron and publisher—and we think they will all be glad we have adopted it.

NOTICE OF THE CHARLE MILLER OF THE CUMBERLAND—TWO LIVES LOST.—A special dispatch to Captain Park Verble, yesterday, states that the Charlie Miller, while bound down the Cumberland river from Nashville, Tuesday morning, by the severe storm which has prevailed along that stream. Although there were a number of persons aboard at the time of the accident, all escaped, except two, who were drowned. Those who were drowned were Mr. S. Van Winkle, the steward of the boat, and the cabin boy, Oscar Lewis, both of whom resided at this place. The Charlie Miller was built at Pittsburgh, and was in her fourth season. She was owned by Captain Park Verble and his brother, W. Verble, of this city, and was valued at $25,000. She was insured in Tyler's agency in this city for $6,000.

POLO PROCEEDINGS.—Friday, March 24.—Peter French, drunk and destroying the property of Jenny Mack; continued until Tuesday and bail in $100 to appear.

James Scott, drunk and abusing his family. This man is before the police court every little while on this same charge; bail in $200 for two months.

John McLain was presented on a peace warrant out by Kate McLain; bail in $100 for three months.

John Barr, stealing $50 from Mr. Fawell; continued small to-morrow morning.

Charles Bias, stabbing Geo. Hybrick with intent to kill; discharged.

There is a call for a meeting of the personal friends of John M. Dibb, at the Court-house, to-night, to talk over the Majority. Some other place would do just as well. It seems to be a select party—a sort of mutual admiring society.

The call is not for a convention—not for a meeting of the citizens of Louisville, but for the friends of John M. Dibb, to "take such steps as may promote the further interest and welfare of the city government at the Mayor's election."

If the call had been for a general convention, other candidates might seek some interest in the call. As it is, they have no cards or tickets to go among the select.

We take pleasure in announcing that Major Henry Pleasner has entirely recovered from his late severe sickness and has resumed business again as Provost Marshal of our city. The community may well be proud of such an officer in their midst, as he is a lover of justice and truth, brave and humane in his actions, and one who is and has been most energetically working for the interest and welfare of our citizens. May he remain with us a long time and always enjoy the blessings of health and happiness.

The following rebel deserters reported themselves and registered their names yesterday at the Provost Marshal's office, S. P. Compton, Paddington county, Ga.; J. K. Johnson, Monroe county, Ark.; Capt. Paul M. Vicker, of this city; Sam. T. Harrison, Jefferson county, Ky., and James N. Clay, Cobb county, Ga.

Sam. Hobbs, of Jessie's command, has come to the city, taken the oath, and been released upon condition that he may answer any charges that may be preferred against him hereafter. He is, it is said, has been engaged in guerrilla warfare; but the truth of this matter may come to light hereafter.

FAST WORK.—The Main-street and Portland Railroad Company are progressing finely with the laying down of the track. Day before yesterday 80 men laid 1,900 feet of the track down on the avenue. We hope soon to have the pleasure of "ridin' in a railroad car" to Portland.

BARRACKS NO. 1—Business at the barracks was lively yesterday. Eighty convalescents arrived from various points, three hundred and ninety men were forwarded to Nashville, Tenn., eight to Eminence, Ky., six to Lebanon and four to Russellville, Ky.

PROCEDED.—The matines at Wood's Theater on Wednesday afternoon realized the sum of $30.53. There were $55 tickets sold.

FASHION.—Mrs. Mayers will open her new spring stock of bonnets, hats, &c., on next Thursday. See her card in to-day's paper.

Court of Appeals.

FRIDAY, MARCH 24, 1865.
CAUSES DECIDED.

Flynn vs. Lockman, Clarke; affirmed.

Ham & Nicholas affirmed on original and reversal.

Sandford vs. Taylor, Galatin; reversed.

Lehner & Co. vs. Herr, C. C.; reversed.

Herber vs. Bellard, et al., L. C. C.;

Field vs. Milliken, L. C. C.; reply to petitions.

W. H. B. BRIDGEFORD, Pres't.

NOTICE TO CIRCUIT CLERK.

NOTICE TO C

